to hit Boyd may be attributed their defeat. Stocksdale retired the first nine men that faced him, but in the fourth an error and three singles netted the Clams three runs. Again in the fifth errors by Dundon and Bradley, and two home-run hits netted the Clams four runs, and a home run by Marr in the seventh inning ended the run-making of the Clams. The errors made by the Farmers were very costly, and aided the Clams in winning the game. Kelley was the only Farmer who could hit Boyd safe, and he made three of the four runs accredited to the Farmers in this game. Dundon made the other on a home-run hit in the ninth linning. Stocksdale was superb at critical times, in the fifth inning striking out all three men. The score:

Lynchburg took the game from Roanoke to-day by magnificent all-round playing,
McFarland pitched superb ball, only three hits being made off his delivery, and his support was of the gilt-edged order. Leaby, Doisn, and McGann, Lynchburg's infield, were at their best, and played phe-nomenal ball. Roanoke put up a fine game, but the home team bunched their hits on Coon and won with ease. Now for the Struggle.

Richmond's three consecutive defeats at Norfolk pulled our percentage down considerably, but still we are two points ahead of the Portsmouth club. The Portsmouth lads come here to-day for three games, and on this series of contests depends our chance for second place. Viox, the clever third baseman who was with Roanoke last scason, and led the hird basemen of the league both at the bat and in the field, has been signed by Richmond, and will report for duty this afternoon.

Richmond, and will report for duty this afternoon.

Jake is still out of the game, but Ballentyne is doing good work at first, and with Viex on third Richmond should take a lead over Portsmouth, which will practically "cinch" second place. From now on until the close of the first half Richmond will be at home and will play eight games—five with Roanoke and three with Portsmouth, the Roanoke and three with Portsmouth the Roanoke club having transferred its three games to this city, and Portsmouth has to tackle Lynchburg for three games. Therefore, Richmond apparently has the best of it, and should finish in second place. To-day's game will, however, tell the story, and a large crowd will no doubt be in attendance.

Our Consul-General at Habana Looking Better Than He Has Looked in Many Years-He is Studying Spanish.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 24 .- (Spe cial.)-Mr. William Ryan reached Washington from New York this morning at o'clock, and went directly to the tropolitan Hotel, where he found a number of reporters hwalling his arrival Ryan has been more sought after by representatives of the press since returning from Cuba than almost any other saw him step off the quarantine tug, at Pler No. 17, in New York, yesterday afternoon, said it was a sight to see the reporters besiege him. Soon after breakfast Mr. Ryan went to the Treasury Department and paid his respects to Commissioner Miller, and from the Treasury he went to the State Department, and was closseted for half an hour or more with Acting-Secretary Rockhill. Secretary Olney being absent from the city for a day. Mr. Ryan's visit was unofficial, but it is supposed that he gave the department a pretty full account of General Lee and of things in Cuba generally. He is to see Secretary Olney and raily. He is to see Secretary Olney and President Cleveland to-morrow. It is more than likely that General Lee's report to the department, giving his views of the war, will be received next Tuesday.

General Weyler compliment General Lee in a facetious way about the progress he was making in Spanish. General Lee could road Spanish before he went to Cuba, but had never learned to speak it.
All the Cubans, said Mr. Ryan, are agreed that some day, not far distant.
Cuba will be annexed to the United under the Spanish flag, but only annexation. It is pretty well understood here that President Cleveland is not favorable to annexation. It remains to be worse every day.

One by one earth's ties are broken,
As we see our love decay;
And the hopes so fondly cherished
Brighten but to pass away,
One by one our hopes grow brighter,
As we near the shining shore;
The we know across the river
